

After reviewing the recommendations set forth in the golf course master plan, the board is in the process of considering the suggested improvements on a task by task basis. Each stage of improvement(s) will be prioritized in a manner that coincides with immediate needs, available funds, and course down time. Great effort and consideration are being expended to ensure that the decisions agreed upon will offer long-term solutions to improve the playability and enjoyment of the facility for all.